Vexatious requests

Freedom of Information Act 2000, Section 14 Section (1)

Section 1 (1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the request is vexatious.

The Freedom of Information Act was designed to give individuals a greater right of access to official information with the intention of making public bodies more transparent and accountable.

Whilst most people exercise this right responsibly, a few may misuse or abuse the Act by submitting requests which are intended to be annoying or disruptive or which have a disproportionate impact on a public authority.

Information on how Walcott Parish Council deals with Vexatious requests can be found on our Vexatious requests policy.
